straight hits to start the game. Valley City pitcher Derek Kohler was able to work out of the jam with just one run scoring, but it was a sign of things to come.

Tied at 3-3 after two innings, Post 221 scored 10 unanswered runs, plating three in the fourth and seven in the fifth to end the game early by 10-run rule.

Valley City did all its scoring in the first two innings. Trent Egan's RBI triple in the first scored Wayne Engelhard, and then Kraig Klingenberg brought home Egan with a two-out single to give Valley City their only lead of the game at 2-1. After Enderlin scored two in the second, Valley City tied the game up when Cody Nelson-Olstad brought home Anthony Olstad with an RBI single.

Karl Bartholomay started on the mound for Enderlin and earned the win. Kohler took the loss.

Taran Langland went 4-for-4 at the plate with two runs and two RBIs. He was one of six Enderlin players that had at least two hits in the game.

Engelhard, Egan and Nelson-Olstad all had two hits for Valley City, which had 10 hits as a team.

In the non-section second game, Enderlin jumped on top early with seven runs in the first three innings. After falling behind 7-0, Valley City fought back with two in the fourth and then plated two more in the fifth to cut it to 7-4. They had the tying run at the plate, but pitcher Dylan Lerud got Devin Haugen to pop up to end the game.

Lerud earned the win for Enderlin and Haugen took the loss for Valley City.

Up next: Valley City (5-4, 2-1 Section 1) and Enderlin (6-0, 2-0 Section 1) are both off until a tournament in Grafton this weekend running Friday through Sunday.

FINALS: Lakers are 9-1 at home this postseason

FROM 10

record in the regular season (26-15), the Celtics can't be lulled into thinking they've got the Lakers on the run.

Although Boston narrowly won Game 2 at Staples Center on the strength of Ray Allen's historic 3-point shooting binge and Rajon Rondo's late-game poise, Boston knows the Lakers are 9-1 at home in the postseason, with everybody from Kobe Bryant to the Lakers' bedraggled bench playing with much more passion and confidence.

"The Lakers ... got homecourt advantage, but we've played the best all year on the road," Boston coach Doc Rivers said. "We're going to have to beat them at their best, because they're going to be great there, and we can't expect anything else."

While the Celtics have ample reason to be confident, Lakers coach Phil Jackson and Bryant also didn't seem particularly worried before the grand finale. For all their struggles in the past four games, the Lakers realize they've usually risen to important occasions over the past three seasons — notwithstanding that 2008 finals blowout loss in Boston's clincher.

"If you look at it, they've come home and carried the 3-2 lead back," Jackson said. "It's basically home court, home court. Now we're going back to home court to win it. That's the way it's supposed to be, isn't it?"

Sure, on paper. In real life, two straight losses in Boston led to a dire series deficit for the Lakers, who hadn't even trailed in any playoff series this season. Yet Jackson even described the Lakers' locker room as "spirited" after losing Game 5 in their lowest-scoring performance of the postseason in the 92-86 loss.

For all their struggles in Boston, the Lakers realize they only have to defend their home court to win their 16th title — and these Los Angeles crowds will be far from laid-back.

"We have a challenge, obviously, down 3-2," said Bryant, who scored 38 points in Game 5 while his struggling teammates only managed 48. "We let a couple opportunities slip away, but it is what it is. Now you go home, you've got two games at home that you need to win, and you pull your boots up and get to work."

LADIES DAY GOLF RESULTS

Sharon Schmalz shot a 43 on June 9 at Ladies Day at the Valley City Town and Country Club for low scratch score of the day. Low net went to Laura Stowman, who finished with a 31.5.

Ruth Nathan chipped in on hole seven, and Nathan and Judy Mathias won the drawing.

All women golfers are reminded of the tournament on June 23 to raise funds for the Susan B. Koman breast cancer foundation.
